

BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

Anticipated Graduation: December 2020
School: FACULTY OF CRANN

“My dream is to become a manager. Enterprise generates employment and employment creates wealth. I want to make people understand that they can not only find a job, but that they can create their own. I think this will help people in my country change their lives. I want to be the person that can help others to do what is right.”

A portrait of a young man, Sadrack Merena, wearing a light-colored, short-sleeved, button-down shirt with a small grid pattern. He is looking slightly to the left of the camera. The photo is framed with a white border and is tilted. A large gold star is in the top left corner of the overall image, and a smaller yellow triangle is in the top right corner of the photo. A larger gold star is in the bottom right corner of the overall image.
