Sit back . . . let Samantha take you to Hawaii . . .

Creating the perfect Hawaiian vacation begins with a great travel agent.

Hawaii has long been included on many people's bucket list and yet, what many people don't realize is how easy it is to fulfill this dream – and how – if you work with a Hawaii Destination Specialist like me, I can plan a perfect – and perfectly affordable – vacation to the Hawaiian Islands. During each of my many visits to the islands, I have celebrated my father's Hawaiian heritage and indulged my sense of adventure. Let's discuss what is important to you and then let me put my extensive knowledge of this wonderful destination to work to help create your best vacation, ever!

Perfect Moments in the Hawaiian Islands

My husband and I celebrated one of our wedding anniversaries in our favorite location – the perfect getaway place – the Hawaiian Island of Kauai, nicknamed "the Garden Isle." The moment our aircraft landed in Lihue, it immediately felt as though we had been transported to one of the most beautiful places on earth. If you're looking for a peaceful and relaxing vacation, one with great weather almost every day; if you want to explore on your own and are looking to escape, Kauai is the island to visit. Only three percent of Kauai's land area is commercial or residential. What this means is that you're surrounded by nature, crescent-shaped beaches, waterfalls, rainbows and endless shades of green.

We prefer active vacations and so we enjoyed hiking the Kalalau Trail at Ha'ena State Park, where we could view the NaPali Coast from just a few miles away; we also enjoyed watching the surfers in Hanalei Bay. Our favorite beach is Poipu, located along the southern coast and reachable by driving through the Tree Tunnel. Fortunate visitors might spot an endangered monk seal or a giant sea turtle on the beach; we were lucky to see both!

Driving around the island is very easy; with just a few main roads, it's almost impossible to get lost and the local people are very friendly. The state of Hawaii is a place close to my heart; my father was born on Oahu and when I was growing up, we traveled there many times to visit relatives. I still have some family living in the islands.

No matter what type of vacation you're looking for, Hawaii can deliver. It is undoubtedly my very favorite place; I would love to share my knowledge with you and help you to create your own perfect moments in the Hawaiian Islands.
