Grand Hyatt Hotel

Grand Hyatt Nashville is a downtown luxury hotel on Broadway at Nashville Yards. Within walking distance of the Gulch and Midtown, our retreat features one of the highest outdoor rooftop bars in Music City, a spa, and seven food and beverage experiences.

Nashville is the place to be for live music, authentic Southern eats, and a rocking good time no matter where you want to go. Grand Hyatt Nashville puts you in the heart of it all, with a Broadway location walking distance to the Gulch and Midtown as well as all the best that Music City has to offer.

Ryman Auditorium: Nicknamed the “Mother Church of Country Music,” this revered church-turned-music venue was once home to the Grand Ole Opry. Today, it’s a popular music venue and a registered National Historic Landmark

Country Music Hall of Fame: Delve into the history and sounds of country music in an immersive experience that also includes artifacts from country music’s biggest stars, such as historic musical instruments famous costumes, and iconic vehicles—like Elvis Presley’s solid gold Cadillac limousine
